

JOHN KRIESEL

MOTIVATIONAL SPEAKER

STILL STANDING. STILL SMILING

A sought after public speaker, John Kriesel travels throughout the country sharing his story, inspiring and motivating others. Kriesel's intensely positive attitude infects every person he shares his story with, from students to senior corporate executives as he relays lessons learned overcoming extreme adversity.

On December 2, 2006 the vehicle Kriesel and four of his comrades were riding in encountered a 200-pound Improvised Explosive Device (IED). The blast killed two of Kriesel's closest friends and he was severely injured, losing both legs, suffering numerous broken bones and internal injuries. He was transported to two field hospitals in Iraq where he died three times on the operating table before doctors saved his life. He woke up at Walter Reed Army Medical Center after an 8-day medically induced coma where he learned about the death of his two comrades and the severity of his injuries.

Nine months after his near-death experience in Iraq, John returned to Minnesota to begin his new life. His transition from military to civilian life offered many challenges, but his amazing support system, positive attitude and sense of humor allowed him to bounce back stronger than ever.

During John's presentation he will describe his decision to join the military at 17 years of age, and his overseas deployments. He will discuss in detail the tragic events of December 2, 2006, and his thoughts and feelings as he laid on a dirt road in Iraq, nearly bleeding to death. He will describe what tools he used to overcome the extreme challenges he faced, while making it relatable and relevant for whoever he is presenting to. John's story, sense of humor, and positive outlook on life will leave your audience inspired.

"Kriesel is something special.
A gifted communicator..."

Working with author Jim Kosmo, Kriesel reveals his story in "STILL STANDING: The Story of SSG John Kriesel," winner of eight national book awards.
